released as promo single. It tells a romantic story centered on a couple formed by the 16-year-old Eduardo and the older college student Mônica, who are ve ry different from each other.[1] Writing and theme [edit]

The song had already been recorded in 1982, when Russo performed alone with his acoustic guitar under the moniker "O Trovador Solitário" (The Solitary Troubadour), on a cassette tape that would be later recovered and released along with other songs on his posthumous solo album O Trovador Solit&# 225;rio.</p&qt;

This version has a different ending than the one from the album. In the latter, it is stated that in a certain vacation period, the family could not tr avel because the son was retaking a class in school.[a][3] In the original versi on, the couple's son is still yet to be born and that they didn't get ma rried in a church, but at Eduardo's ranch. Some verses were already scratche d by then: " With an Indian flutist who marked the time signature/ All all f riends..." They built a house somewhere close to the sea and went to Bahia, Ouro Preto and Rio de Janeiro. Eduardo got a job at Banco Central and Môni ca is a professor.[3]</p&qt;

A 2024 article by science magazine Superinteressante suggested that the couple was unlikely to have a long-lasting relationship, based on what the vers es say about them and analyzing such info against diverse scientific researches on reasons why couples break up.[1]
