Di Mar
a was born on 14 February 1988 in Rosario, Santa Fe, as one of three children of Miguel Mar
a and Diana Hernandez, and grew up in Perdriel. As an infant, he was unusually active, and on recommendation of a doctor was signed up for football at age three. He also helped his parents with their work at a local coal yard along with his two sisters, Vanesa and Evelyn. Due to the low income his family earned, purchasing football boots and keeping up with Di Mar a's hobby was difficult for his parents. He considers himself to be a "family man" and has used a significant amount of his salary to "give back" to his family. After being transferred to Benfica, he asked his father not to work any more and purchased a house for his parents and sisters.[1

On 28 June 2010, Real Madrid posted on their website that they had agreed with Benfica for the transfer of Di Mar a. He signed a five-year contract for €25 million, plus €11 million in incentives, as announced one day later by the Portuguese Stock Exchange regulating entity.[28] On 7 July 2010, Di Mar a arrived to Madrid directly from Buenos Aires.[29]
