The chewy, fruity sweets were launched in 1960. In 1998 the name changed to Starburst to match what they were called in the US at the time.

The only difference between two, is that Starburst includes a lemon and lime sweet and a blackcurrant one, while Opal fruits came in strawberry, lemon, orange and lime.

Opal Fruits are coming back - 22 years after changing name to Starburst

Most people don't know green Starbursts exist, but they do. In the 1970-80's, lime was an original Starburst flavor, which is now replaced by cherry. Lemon lime is exactly what it sounds like and lime put together. It's mainly popular in the UK and other parts of Europe in the Fruity Chews pack.
